Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Choice English Lyrics Songs of Nature and the Seasons. So goeth the poet hand in hand with nature, not enclosed within the narrow warrant of her gifts, but freely ranging within the zodiac of his own wit. Nature never set forth the earth in so rich tapestry as divers poets have done; neither with pleasant rivers, fruitful trees, sweet-smelling flowers, nor whatever else may make the too-much-loved earth more lovely; her world is brazen, the poets only deliver a golden. - Sir Philip Sidney. I. A Morning Song. Hark, hark! the lark at heaven s gate sings, And Phoebus gins arise, His steeds to water at those springs On chaliced flowers that lies; And winking Mary-buds begin To ope their golden eyes: With every thing that pretty is. My lady sweet, arise: Arise, arise. William Shakespeare. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
