As Christians we can access God anytime and anywhere, but do you know that you can create your own portal into the spiritual realm? I stumbled upon this life-changing concept at a point when I had a busy family with young children in a small apartment. You will find that wonderful things happen when you have your own Jesus space. You ll enter A place where you can instantly be transported into the spiritual realm A world through Holy Spirit that can look physical and feel physical, but is spiritual A realm where you can travel to places unknown to man, experience things physical beings cannot experience, and know a love that is supernatural A space where Jesus comes to hang out with you, to hear your heart, to talk and laugh and get to know you. He tells you things for your ears alone. He tells you how precious you are to Him, He shares secrets, and one of my favorite things to do with Him-- He...
