Not illustrated. 1871 Excerpt: .the Sovereign Pontiff s appreciation of the life and career of Daniel O Connell. The Holy Father called him the great champion of tiie Church--the father of his country--the glory of the Christian world ; and his Holiness added that he desired that his career should be celebrated and made known to the world, because it had ever been open in the face of Heaven, had ever stood firm for legality and had nothing to hide; and it was this with his unshaken fidelity and reverence for Religion that had secured his triumphs. And now I will invite you to take part in an act of charity, which may still be the most acceptable offering that we can make for the departed hero. Knowing how strict and severe is the searching Judgment of God, and how terrible and oftentimes how long are the penalties endured in Purgatory by many who have passed out of life in God s grace, a High Mass de Requiem, Coram Pontifce, for the repose of the soul of Daniel O coxnell, will be sung in the Cathedral of Salford, on Monday, August 9th, at eleven o clock, to be followed by a grand Te Deitm for the Blessings granted through his instrumentality, and during the century which has ensued since his birth. As very considerable expenses will be incurred in the celebration of the Centenary in Dublin, and as there may be many in our various missions who may desire to...
